World Book Day. On Thursday children are invited to come dressed as a character from a book they love. There is also a competition to make a scene in a shoe box from a book they have enjoyed! There will a prize for the most interesting from each class....

There will also be a book swap on the day so that children can bring a book they've read and take a new one home!

NHS Hub. Please look out for posters around school giving details of when the school nurses will hold drop in sessions here, these will happen on a regular basis. The next one will happen here on 11th March from 9.30 to 10.30. The session will offer help with anxiety, behaviour and sleep issues.
