

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Christianity

Find out 5 facts about Christianity.

- What are the main beliefs?
- What is the Holy Book called?
- Where do Sikhs meet?
- Are there any special traditions?
- Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Read a newspaper article about a current event that interests you.

Write a brief summary of the article and then 5 questions you have about it.

Joy.

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.
You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

Bake or cook something from a different country or historical period.

Research the recipe, measure out the ingredients and then take a picture of your finished masterpiece!

Write a review of your recipe - how many stars would you give it?

Find out about a significant person from history. Gather information about who they were, what they achieved and where they lived.

Create a fact file about them.

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Islam

Find out 5 facts about Islam.

What are the main beliefs?
What is the Holy Book called?
Where do Sikhs meet?
Are there any special traditions?
Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Watch an episode of Newsround.

Write a summary of the news stories and then 5 questions you have.

Peace.

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.
You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

Create your own board game.

Make sure you write down the rules and create pieces for your players to move around your board.

Play it with a friend!

Choose a country from an atlas or map.

Find out as much as you can about the country and create a poster about it.

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Hinduism

Find out 5 facts about Hinduism.

- What are the main beliefs?
- What is the Holy Book called?
- Where do Sikhs meet?
- Are there any special traditions?
- Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Read a newspaper article about a current event that interests you.

Write a brief summary of the article and then 5 questions you have about it.

Justice.

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.
You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

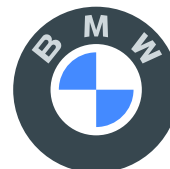

Film a video in the style of a YouTuber on a topic of your choice.

Research your topic first, then write yourself a script to follow.

Film and upload to Seesaw!

Design a new logo for a well known company. Think about what they sell and consider the colours they use.

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Buddhism

Find out 5 facts about Buddhism.

What are the main beliefs?

What is the Holy Book called?

Where do Sikhs meet?

Are there any special traditions?

Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Watch an episode of Newsround.

Write a summary of the news stories and then 5 questions you have.

Compromise.

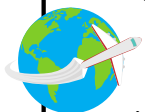

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.

You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

Write a diary entry about a day when you visited somewhere.

It could be another country or somewhere here in the UK.

Allow your reader to experience what you did and how you felt in your writing.

Technology must be banned.

List 6 reasons for and 6 reasons against the statement.

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Sikhism

Find out 5 facts about Sikhism.

- What are the main beliefs?
- What is the Holy Book called?
- Where do Sikhs meet?
- Are there any special traditions?
- Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Read a newspaper article about a current event that interests you.

Write a brief summary of the article and then 5 questions you have about it.

Patience.

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.
You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

Create a family tree - either real or imaginary.

If you choose real, ask people in your family about your extended family. Find out as much as you can about them.

If imaginary - be as creative as you can!

Create a new timetable for a school day.

What lessons would you take out and which would you add in?

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!

Top 3 - Do these every week.

1

READING

1. Read as many times as you can to another person.
2. Ask them politely to write in your reading record.
3. Get tickets into the Reading Raffle!

2

SPELLING

Practise the spelling words.

Write them out in lists or use them to write short sentences.

3

MATHS

Complete the maths challenge posted on Seesaw.

Post your completed work so I can high five you in class!

Choose one of these activities each week - pick a different box each time.

RE: Judaism

Find out 5 facts about Judaism

What are the main beliefs?
 What is the Holy Book called?
 Where do Sikhs meet?
 Are there any special traditions?
 Are there any festivals that are celebrated?

Watch an episode of Newsround.

Write a summary of the news stories and then 5 questions you have.

Curiosity.

Represent this word in whichever way inspires you most.
 You can draw it, write about it, read about it or define it.

Design a community garden.

What would you have in it for the community to enjoy? Would there be a vegetable patch? Some benches? A play area?

Draw and label your design.

Create a new outdoor game or sport.

What is the aim of your game?
 Is it a team game, for pairs or individuals?
 How do you win?

Choose your own task!

Spend at least 20 minutes on your task and post it on Seesaw when you're done!